

Call for Postdoctoral Research Fellowship at EPGE Escola Brasileira de Economia e
Finanças
CAPES' National Postdoctoral Program (Portaria n.86/2013)

EPGE Escola Brasileira de Economia e Finanças' Graduate Program in Economics, hereinafter referred as FGV EPGE, in compliance with Portaria CAPES n. 86/2013 (Portaria CAPES), hereby publishes this Call for Postdoctoral Research Fellowship in the following terms:

Art. 1º - It will be granted 1 (one) postdoctoral fellowship, for immediate occupation, for the development of a research project linked to one of the research lines of the Program, with the amount of R$ 4.100,00 (four thousand and one hundred reais) per month, for the period of 12 (twelve) months.

Paragraph 1 – It is forbidden the accumulation of this fellowship with any kind of fellowship from another CAPES program, from another public development agency, national or international, public or private company, or with paid professional practice, except for the exceptions provided in article 2º or from a specific CAPES standard.

Paragraph 2 – The Program does not contemplate other sources of resources beyond those described in this Call.

Art. 2º - The candidate must fulfill the following requirements to register:

- a) Have a PhD at the time of the fellowship implementation, obtained in courses evaluated by CAPES and recognized by CNE/MEC in the area of Economics;
- b) Not being retired or in a similar situation;
- c) Not having a labor bond with FGV;
- d) Must fit into one of the following situations:
 - i) Be Brazilian or foreign resident in Brazil with a temporary visa, without labor bond when the fellowship is implemented;
 - ii) Be foreigner, residing abroad when submitting the application, and without labor bond when the fellowship is implemented;
 - iii) Be a professor or a researcher in this country, with labor bond in higher education institutions or public research institutions. He/She shall present proof of license from the home institution for a period compatible with the validity period of the fellowship at the time of its implementation

Paragraph 1 – For the fellows approved in modalities i and ii, the fellowship's duration will be twelve months and it may be renewed annually up to a maximum of 24 (twenty four) months, at the discretion of the Program Direction, of the progress of the researcher's work and the availability of budget from the funding agency.

Paragraph 2 – In case the degree was obtained in foreign institution, this document will be analyzed by FGV EPGE’s Graduate Program in Economics.

Art. 3º - The candidates must present the following documents when submitting the application:

- a) Registration Form completed (Appendix I of this Call);
- b) In case of foreign candidate residing abroad, proof of residential address abroad at the time of the submission;
- c) Cover letter (one page), explaining the interest in FGV EPGE’s Graduate Program in Economics;

- e) Research project linked to one of the research lines of the FGV EPGE’s Graduate Program in Economics (Economic Development, Econometrics, Finance, Applied Microeconomics, International Economics, Monetary Economics, Economic Theory), with a maximum of 8 (eight) pages. The project will have its merit evaluated from the following items: Title; Research object; Rationale; Brief description of methodology, indicating the phases of the research;
- f) Letter signed by the Coordinator or Head of Department of the home institution, demonstrating support to the candidate and knowledge of the requirements and attributions of the holder, in case of candidates who are professors or researchers in the country with employment in institutions of higher education or public institutions of research;
- g) On an optional basis, up to two letters of recommendation may be submitted.

Art. 4º - The application documents must be addressed to secepge@fgv.br.

Paragraph 1 – As application proof, it will be valid exclusively the confirmation of receipt sent by FGV EPGE’s Graduate Program in Economics.

Paragraph 2 – Incomplete applications, without sending all the documents, will not be accepted in any case.

Art. 5º - The criteria for the candidate’s classification are:

- a) Research project merit, as mentioned in article 3 (item e);
- b) Curriculum and cover letter evaluation.

Art. 6º - Since it is an immediate occupation position, the bonding period with EPGE’s Graduate Program in Economics and the validity of the postdoctoral fellowship should begin immediately after the candidate’s approval. The precise starting date will be indicated to the candidate afterwards.

Art. 7º - Fellow’s obligations:

- a) To present annual report on the research’s development, as well as the final research report, no later than 60 (sixty) days after the end of activities;

- b) To be dedicated exclusively to the research and activities of FGV EPGE's Graduate Program in Economics;
- c) To be available to (i) develop research activities in at least one of the research lines of EPGE's Graduate Program in Economics; (ii) Teach courses at FGV EPGE; (iii) Participate in defense examining boards.

Art. 8º - Once approved, the candidate who does not live in Rio de Janeiro city must change the residence to this city or metropolitan area in order to allow the regular postdoctoral activities development.

Sole paragraph – In case of a foreign candidate, he/she must prove that he/she has the necessary documentation to enter and stay in Brazil for a compatible period with the fellowship validity.

Art. 9º - Cases not covered by this Call shall be resolved by the Student Affairs and Research Commission of FGV EPGE's Graduate Program in Economics.

Rio de Janeiro, July 16, 2018.
