

I HEREBY state that I am aware of my responsibility to be familiar and comply with the regulations and documents listed below, as well as the other documents that govern the Higher Education, available in FGV's communication and information channels.

- Fundação Getulio Vargas Code of Ethics and Conduct
- Program Regulations
- Academic Calendar
- Law n. 9.610/98 – Copyright
- Circular on Restricted Items of Clothing

I further state that I am aware that:

- a. Students who enroll in elective or mandatory courses will be granted temporary status as a student of the respective FGV School, which will expire automatically at the end of the program/course;
- b. Should the Exchange Student opt to extend his/her stay at the FGV School responsible for the exchange program, he/she must obtain approval from the Higher Education Institution abroad at which they study and from the FGV School;
- c. The student visa and Brazilian ID card for foreign nationals (Registro Nacional Migratório) must be valid for the period the student will stay in the country;
- d. No application receipts, of any kind, will be accepted for enrollment renewal purposes;
- e. Students are responsible for their own personal belongings (e.g. backpacks, tablets, cell phones, etc.). FGV will not be liable for any loss, damage, theft or misplacement of any items, which may have occurred within its premises, resulting from students' lack of vigilance.

I further STATE, before FUNDAÇÃO GETULIO VARGAS, that the statements and documents submitted during the Undergraduate Program's Selection and Enrollment processes are true and authentic, and that on accepting this responsibility, I exempt said Higher Education Institution from any civil or criminal liability arising from a lack of veracity, accuracy, or authenticity of any of the documents I have submitted, which may result in my academic work being annulled and my being held legally accountable for having acted in bad faith.
